

1 March 6, 2012 (doc. 38), an extension of the dispositive motion cutoff date would
2 undermine the remainder of the Rule 16 Order.

3 In contrast, a thirty day extension of the discovery cutoff date will do no violence to 4 the remainder of the plan, as long as the parties understand that its consequences will not be
5 offered to amend the remainder of the Rule 16 Order. Accordingly, it is ORDERED
6 DENYING the Joint Motion to extend the dispositive motion cutoff date, but GRANTING
7 the Joint Motion to extend the discovery cutoff by 30 days, to and including May 11, 2012.
8 (Doc. 40). Neither this extension nor its consequences shall be offered as a reason to amend
9 the remainder of the Rule 16 Order.

10 DATED this 19th day of March, 2012.
